

COMMUNICATIONS INTERNSHIP

WE ARE SEEKING A SUMMER 2020 COMMUNICATIONS INTERN

Position will be based out of West Des Moines, Iowa, office and require a minimum of 40 hours/week. The selected candidate will be compensated $13/hour and must have reliable transportation to work every day.

In this role, the communications intern will have the opportunity to work on various projects for Iowa Select Farms and philanthropic efforts through the Deb and Jeff Hansen Foundation. The focus areas of this internship will be community engagement, project management, public relations and content development. The communications intern will also help coordinate projects and special events including Haul Out Hunger pork loin deliveries, summer parades, Adventureland Family Days and Iowa State Fair Family Days.

WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Applicants pursuing a 2- or 4-year degree in communications, public relations, marketing or related field are strongly encouraged to apply. The main focus of this internship will be project management and facilitation, thus excellent organizational and time-management skills will be required.

Prior experience developing press releases and content for online and social media platforms is a plus.

TO APPLY:

Visit www.iowaselect.com and complete the online application for Communications Intern.

WE'RE A TOP WORKPLACE!

For the past five years, Iowa Select Farms has been ranked Top Workplace in Iowa by the Des Moines Register. Top Workplace awards are based solely on the results of employee survey feedback administered by Workplace Dynamics, a research firm specializing in organizational health and workplace improvement.

The survey measured several aspects of each workplace including organizational health and individual job satisfaction such as employee confidence in employer management and business strategy, company culture and appreciation of employee contributions to company success.

